Make sure you register for a ticket in time. The interest in Radiodays Europe, now in its third year, is growing and many have already booked their tickets.

- The capacity of the venue is not unlimited, so we advise not to wait too long to register, says Christian Kjeldsen, one of the project managers.

Radiodays Europe is the meeting point for radio in Europe with more than 40 sessions and 70 speakers over two days. Radiodays Europe is supported by radio organisations such as EBU, AER and egta.

The next Radiodays Europe in Barcelona is hosted with the kind support of broadcaster partners in Catalonia and Spain. The conference starts with a welcoming reception in the evening of 14 March. The conference itself takes place in the Contemporary Culture Centre CCCB in Barcelona 15-16 March.

Be sure to register for your ticket now on the website: www.radiodayseurope.com.
